

Knowledge Organiser – Mobile Phone Case

History

The history of phone cases started when the phones began to change in both function and size. Phones in the 90s started to shrink in size with new models, which made them easier to carry around. These phones were now small enough to fit in a pocket or purse, which older phones couldn't do.

Quality mobile phone cases delivers the benefit of protecting your phone from liquid spills, scratches, heat from the sun and unfortunate moments.
