

Knowledge Organiser – Shelters

Important Information

Shelters are built to keep people, animals and things safe. It is important that they are strong and sturdy and can withstand torrential weather. They need to be robust and built from a range of materials which a suitable for the type of shelter you are building.

Key Vocabulary

Functional	Designed to be practical and useful.
Appealing	Attractive or interesting.
Support	To hold up the weight of the structure.
Shelter	A place which gives protection.
Diagram	A simplified drawing which is labelled and annotated.
Stable	Something which is firmly fixed and in place.
Structure	A building constructed of many parts.
Textile	A type of cloth or woven fabric.

