

ABOUT FINDAWAY

For 40 years WWIN have supported the local community through our specialist domestic abuse services. Now – through Findaway – we hope to reach those impacted earlier, before the abuse escalates, by supporting those around them.

Findaway is a new project that recognises that you – the families, friends and community members – are usually the first to know, and best placed to support, if someone you know is being controlled, scared or hurt by their partner, ex-partner or family member.

Families, friends and neighbours - you are often the first to learn about abuse and can be best placed to offer support. You are the first line of protection for people subjected to abuse, not services.

WHY IS THIS SERVICE NEEDED?

We believe that families, friends and community members are best placed to support people in controlling or potentially dangerous relationships. We want to equip you with the knowledge and skills you need to effectively support the people you care about.

WHO IS IT FOR?

This project is for you if you're worried someone you know is being controlled, scared, or hurt by someone they love.

WHAT DO WE DO?

- Community Engagement
- Workshops
- Findaway Phoneline
- Social Awareness

FINDAWAY

"I felt a bit powerless and as if I should be doing something, but I didn't want to do the wrong thing - so I did nothing"

"How could you get back with someone after they treated you like that. "

I didn't realise that stalking was a form of abuse. I could never believe that my daughter would have been abused. She was so strong.

How can I support them when they don't recognise what's happening as abuse, and without pushing them away?
